Steve Goddard, Managing Director of GPC, said: "This latest client win is a huge achievement for us as a firm because not only is Telehouse a well established, greatly respected brand supplying data storage to some of the world's biggest banks and financial institutions, but the group personal pension market is a key market for us and one in which there is a great deal of growth and opportunity.

"As an organisation GPC is on an aggressive growth strategy. Our recent acquisition of HS Admin is very much part of our plans to be able to provide a unique and comprehensive service to the wider market."
