Goddard Perry Consulting announce details of latest complimentary Pensions Breakfast Seminar

Goddard Perry Consulting (GPC), a leading Employee Benefits Consultancy, today announced the details of their latest pension breakfast seminar. The event, which is free to attend for Trustees, Pension Managers, Finance Directors and anyone responsible for their organisation's occupational pension arrangements, will be held on 20 October in London.

The seminar will look at the following key areas:

- The end of Enhanced Transfer Values? – buy now while stocks last.
- RPI/CPI – a cost or a saving?
- Pension costs in the accounts – up or down? (includes IAS19 changes)
- Income drawdown for longer, 75->77->... – impact of drawdown on annuity rates??
- High earner tax relief – pensions vs salary/other
- Auto-enrolment – still coming your way
- Other hot issues of the day

A guest speaker from law firm, Blake Laphorn, will also be speaking to ensure that not only actuarial and consulting aspects are covered but also the problematic legal aspects. To register for the event please contact David Pettit, Managing Director at GPC, on: 020 7837 7040 / david.pettitt@GPActuarial.com
